CARDINAL FOOTBALL

THIS WEEK: Otterbein hits the road looking to solidify a winning season, taking on an upstart Marietta team that has won four-straight games. The Cards are looking to finish over .500 for the first time since 2012, when they went a healthy 8-2.

A LOOK AT MARIETTA: The Pioneers, under the direction of fifth-year head coach Andy Waddle, are enjoying their best season in recent memory and have already clinched their first winning campaign since going 6-4 all the way back in 2006. Marietta has impressive wins over Heidelberg and Ohio Northern and are averaging 42.8 ppg. over the past month.

SERIES HISTORY: Otterbein has won five-straight games over Marietta since Doup took over as head coach, including a 31-21 triumph the last time the schools met inside Don Drumm Stadium. That game, delayed by weather, was culminated when linebacker Drew Ervin housed an interception return with 5:08 remaining.

LAST SEASON: Otterbein posted a 49-21 victory over the Pioneers in the 2016 regular-season finale with 411 yards of offense and big days from Logan Stepp and Julian Lowe. The game was tied, 7-7, midway through the second quarter before the Cards scored three-straight TD's and never looked back.

WHAT TO EXPECT: "The difference between 6-4 and 5-5 is huge," head coach Tim Doup said. "We have to achieve a winning record and get back over that hump, not only for the program but for these seniors heading out. Our top goal every year is to finish with a winning record... and this would make it happen."

FINAL STEPP: Senior QB Logan Stepp, suiting up for his final collegiate game, needs 102 rushing yards to become the first player in OAC history to pass for 2,000 and run for 1,000 in the same regular-season. Mount Union's Kevin Burke accomplished the feat in 2013 over 14 games during his team's playoff run, when he won the Gagliardi Trophy as the top player in Division III.

LOWE AND BEHOLD: Senior wide receiver Julian Lowe is also searching for a piece of history in his final college game, needing just one more touchdown catch to become Otterbein's all-time leader in the category. He hauled in his 29th-career TD last week against John Carroll, tying the mark set by former All-American tight end Jeff Gibbs from 1998-2001.

TACKLE BOX: Sophomore safety Fred Hardgrove, the OAC's leading tackler at 92 total stops, could become the eighth Cardinal since the turn of the century to amass 100 in a single season. He would be the third Otterbein player in that same span to lead the league, joining Drew Ervin (2015) and Kieran Johnson (2004). Senior linebacker Austin Jones, at 87 tackles, could also hit triple digits with a big game. He had 103 during an All-OAC freshman season in 2013.

Quarterback Logan Stepp runs away from a Marietta player last season.
