CARDINAL FOOTBALL

THIS WEEK: Otterbein looks to bounce back from a very disappointing road loss at Ohio Northern. The Cards now seek revenge against cross-town rival Capital after a wild loss last year. It will be the Crusaders' Homecoming in Bexley this time around.

VS.

A LOOK AT CAPITAL: The Crusaders, under second-year head coach Chad Rogosheske, have a Muskingum victory sandwiched between losses to Mount St. Joseph and Wilmington. The Quakers snapped a 40-game OAC losing streak last Saturday by outlasting Capital, 37-30, in overtime. The Purple and White went 4-6 last season and returned seven starters on both sides of the ball. Senior LB Derek Eibon paced led the defense with 81 tackles last year.

GAME NOTES (CONT. ON NEXT PAGE)

FIT TO BE TIED: In a rivalry series such as Otterbein and Capital, it's fitting that the series record between the two schools currently stands in a tie of 44-44-3. The Cards had won four-straight matchups prior to the Crusaders escaping Westerville with a 42-41 decision last fall.

BACK TO BERNLOHR: The Cardinals have won their last two games inside Capital's Bernlohr Stadium, posting a 49-34 win in 2015 and then a 23-9 triumph during the 2012 season. The two teams combined for 1,028 yards of total offense in the 2015 contest.

WHAT TO EXPECT: "Intense," said head coach Tim Doup said when asked to describe the rivalry. "The mistakes we made last year and the way that game ended left a very bad taste in our mouth. I'm sure Capital will be fired up for their Homecoming so it will be another memorable showdown. This is huge for us in terms of responding from Ohio Northern, and then heading into our bye week on a good note with a 4-1 record."

BATTER UP: Last year's intense matchup featured many significant plays, but many will long remember an illegal-batting penalty called on Otterbein after blocking a Capital punt and recovering it for a touchdown with 6:00 to play. The play would have put the Cards up 41-28, but the Crusaders were instead awarded the ball back and scored two plays later on a long TD pass.

TEACH ME HOW TO DOUGIE: Junior Andre Douglas made his mark from the defensive line last week at Ohio Northern, blocking an extra-point attempt just before halftime and then blocking a field goal in the third quarter. He was also part of a sack on ONU's first possession.

AUSTIN, 3:16: Senior linebacker Austin Jones, who wears #3, made a season-high 16 tackles last week against ONU. It was the most since his career-best 18 stops during the 2014 campaign... against Capital. The fifth-year player was a 2x all-conference pick as a freshman and sophomore, then suffered a season-ending injury during the first game of 2015. He returned last year and is now back to looking even stronger.

STEPP BACK: Quarterback Logan Stepp was vocal about taking blame for the offensive struggles at Ohio Northern after completing just 8 of 25 passes for 76 yards with one TD, and one interception. "I wasn't any good today," Stepp said. "If people want to give me credit after a win, then I most certainly deserve the blame after a loss like this. I will be better next time out."

FAIR PLAY: Otterbein has run 262 offensive plays through four games while opposing teams have run 261. Can't get much closer than that.

THIRD PARTY: Otterbein entered last week ranked fourth in the nation for third-down conversion rate, but went just 2 for 12 against the Polar Bears. The team went 8 of 11 last season in the Capital game.

THOMAS THE TANK: Otterbein will need to slow down Capital quarterback Thomas Wibbeler, who is averaging 276.7 yards per game through the air and has tossed nine touchdowns. He went 21 of 32 for 351 yards and five TD's against the Cards last season.

BYE BYE BYE: The Cardinals will have their bye week following this Capital game, a slight change from usually having the second week off. All other schools in the league besides Otterbein and Muskingum will play next Saturday.
