* Denotes Ohio Athletic Conference dual

DUAL PREVIEW:

Otterbein gets back to action tonight for the first time in over a month, hosting Heidelberg in a key conference dual.

The Cards have won three-straight duals, including a league win at Muskingum behind timely pins from middleweights Denver Aydelott (157) and Willy Plaisir (165). Plaisir is currently 16-3 on the year.

Otterbein has used the five-week layoff to get healthy, and should be near full strength tonight in what could be a very close showdown. Sophomore Drew Kasper, a first team All-OAC pick last year, remains No. 10 in the individual national rankings and holds a 14-2 record.

Heidelberg has taken on a very challenging schedule, most recently at the National Duals in Fort Wayne, Indiana. The Student Princes got off to a nice start in OAC action with a 22-16 triumph over John Carroll.

Mason Brainard (125) leads the way with a 21-6 record, and is expected to form an interesting opening bout against Otterbein's Jackson Lakso, who won last year by a narrow 4-2 decision.

Heidelberg won the team dual a year ago in Tiffin, overcoming that initial loss to pull away for a 34-6 final. The Berg finished ninth at last season's NCAA Mideast Regional in York, Pa.
