GAME NOTES:

SERIES HISTORY: Otterbein has defeated Wilmington 11-straight times, including a 56-28 victory last season in Westerville behind 466 yards of total offense. The Cards led 42-7 late in the third quarter of that game.

BRYCE IS RIGHT: Sophomore quarterback Bryce Hall received his first-career start last week against Marietta. The right-armed gunslinger overcame a pick-six on his first pass attempt to eventually complete 22 of 34 passes for 289 yards and a TD. Hall, who has actually appeared in all nine games so far this year, also has a team-high three rushing scores to his credit.

TOSS IT TO ROSS: Sophomore wide receiver Dom Ross not only made his first college catch in a varsity game last week, but he made five for 103 yards. The Marion native caught two long passes from Hall that helped accelerate scoring drives.

LOSS FOR WORDS: Linebacker Ryan Tuchow has been a force all season, currently leading the OAC with 15 tackles for loss and also sitting fourth in total stops (84). He also has four sacks and a pair of fumble recoveries.

THIRD DEGREE: Third down should be a critical component of this matchup, as the Cards are converting a league-low 27 percent in the situation but the Quakera are allowing a league-high 54 percent conversion rate on defense. Something will have to give and could be a telling point once the final horn sounds.

QUAKER CAPSULE: Sophomore QB Kyle Barrett has been productive this year behind center, completing 60 percent of his passes for almost 2,000 yards and 18 touchdowns. He has two quality targets in Ace Taylor and Luke Richardson, who have combined for 70 catches and over 1,000 yards. Richardson is tied for third in the OAC at nine receiving TD's.

Senior Rick Herbst comes around the corner to try and wrap up the Wilmington QB last season.
