GAME NOTES:

RECENT HISTORY: Otterbein has gone 1-5 over the past six against John Carroll, with the lone victory coming in 2012 (a 21-7 victory at Memorial Stadium) when Tim Doup ultimately earned OAC Coach of the Year honors in his first season at the helm. Last year, the Blue Streaks led 14-9 at halftime before exploding in the second half for a 52-16 triumph.

THIRD DEGREE: Otterbein is looking to become more efficient on third down as the young season progresses, having converted just 3 of 25 opportunities so far. The Cards went just 1 of 12 in last week's game at BW while the host Yellow Jackets were a healthy 9 of 15.

FLEXIBLE FRED: All-American safety Fred Hardgrove, who missed preseason camp, played minimal snaps against Ohio Wesleyan and then started at cornerback for the first time in his career at Baldwin Wallace. He also contributed on special teams again, busting a kick return across midfield for the second week in a row.

WEDDING WARRIOR: Hardgrove started at corner to help buy time for Dassan Jefferson, who was driving separately to Berea after serving as a groomsman in a family mid-afternoon wedding back near Columbus. Jefferson arrived midway through the second quarter and ended up making six tackles (four solo) along with a pass breakup.

MOMMA THERE GOES CHAT MAN: Freshman nose tackle Nigel Chatman has shown some nice flashes in the middle, and was disruptive at Baldwin Wallace with six tackles (1.5 for loss) and a half-sack while sharing snaps. He spent one year at Columbus State Community College before transferring to Otterbein.

COACH DOUP COMMENTS:

On the offense and being just 3 of 25 on third down so far:

"We have to find ways to convert, move the chains and keep our defense off the field for longer stretches. This week has been about going back to the basics, simplifying certain aspects and not second-guessing ourselves. Those guys on defense aren't perfect either, but they have been getting really tired trying to help limit damage. You can't be that bad on third down and expect to win games."

On Ryan Tuchow's play at linebacker and making 10 tackles in each game:

"Ryan has solid game experience and is really flying around out there now. He is still learning some things as a first-year starter, but I can see him evolving into the big-time player that we thought he would be during the recruiting process. I expect him to get better and better each week."

On Fred Hardgrove and his abilities in multiple phases:

"Fred is a natural athlete that provides us raw explosiveness. We are still getting him back in game-shape but it's obvious to see that he's a difference maker on the field. You never know what might happen when he touches the ball on special teams or lines up defensively. He offers a dynamic presence and we certainly benefit from his athleticism, because he can make a mistake yet make up for it."

On playing John Carroll:

"I think they are better than last year and have a ton of scary pieces back. Their offense provides multiple options and their defensive line goes nine players deep. I see a balanced team that's nationally ranked for a reason. We will need to play very well and mistake-free, then see what happens."
