GAME NOTES:

PAY RESPECT: Fifth-year senior captain Payton Vanderkooi, a slot receiver, helped represent the Cards at OAC Media Day in July but then unfortunately suffered a tough injury just days before the season opener against Ohio Wesleyan. He returned last week to gut through pain in his final Homecoming game, leading the team with five catches for 51 yards.

WELCOME TO GOOD BURGY: Junior Orlando Burgy received his first-career start at running back last week as a result of injuries at the position, and ended up rushing for 64 yards and a touchdown in the fourth quarter. The West Virginia native had a long run of 18 yards.

JAKE THE SNAKE: Senior linebacker Jake Harper slithered his way between gaps and toward the ball frequently last week, making a career-high 12 stops to limit ONU's offense. The three-year starter, who was also a Silver Gloves amateur boxing champion as a 16-year old, is approaching 200 college tackles and has been in the starting lineup 33-straight games.

D-D-D-DEFENSE: Otterbein's defense has played admirably this year despite being faced with some tough positions on the field. The unit, which is only allowing 97.2 rushing yards per game, had 10 pass breakups, eight tackles for loss and five sacks against Ohio Northern.

MUSICAL CHAIRS: The offensive line has played around with different combinations and experienced a slight makeover in recent weeks. Center Josh Davis and left guard Winston Spiker switched spots, big Jared Conover has moved over to right guard and true freshman Nick Hopper earned the start last week at left tackle. The Cards had their most rushing yards and most total offense of the season against Ohio Northern.

COACH DOUP COMMENTS:

On the defense:

"They are the backbone right now and playing well. They stepped up almost every time against Northern and just gave up the one big play on third down. I'm pleased with the way they are flying around, being physical and just knowing what to do. I see them getting better each week."

On the offensive line after shuffling some pieces around in recent weeks:

"I thought they played their best game this season up front. We went from 10 sacks to zero and created some green space to run the football. Those guys will be the success of our offense if they keep improving and protect the guys behind."

On captain Payton Vanderkooi returning from a tough preseason injury:

"I wasn't necessarily all for it because I knew he wasn't close to 100 percent, but he is a gamer and wanted to play. You could tell he was gimpy at times but just kept grinding, because that's who he is. He provides a spark on the field and sets a good example for his teammates. We will focus on being smart with Payton and getting him healthy for the back half of the season."

On the challenging schedule in September:

"My message to the guys remains the same... work to get better every week. I wasn't sure if we did at BW, but I certainly believe we improved at John Carroll and then again last week as well. Our first goal each year is to have a winning record, and that remains intact. There is no time to hang your head and lose focus. That's not football and that's not life."
