GAME NOTES:

RHINE RIVER CUP: Otterbein and Heidelberg took part in the first-ever football game played on German soil in 1992, which ended in a 7-7 tie. The two sides have been battling for the Rhine River Cup ever since and the Cards currently hold a 14-11-1 advantage.

BYE BYE BYE: The Cards enjoyed a much-needed bye week last Saturday after a challenging month that saw games against Baldwin Wallace, John Carroll, Ohio Northern and Mount Union. JCU and Mount Union are nationally-ranked while BW/ONU were both receiving votes in the national poll. Otterbein is 5-1 coming off a bye under Doup.

TUG OF WAR: Sophomore slot receiver Dylan Tuggle had a nice day against top-ranked Mount Union, hauling in four grabs for 60 yards and a 32-yard score to pace the aerial gang. The play marked Otterbein's first passing touchdown of the season.

SAFETY NET: Safety Niall Lewison, who missed all of last season with an injury, currently leads the team with 42 stops and ranks top-10 in the conference for tackles per game (8.4). He recently authored a "Catching up with a Cardinal" student-athlete blog to speak about what being back on the football field means and the importance of overcoming obstacles.

YOU'VE GOT A POINT: Recent matchups between Otterbein and Heidelberg have translated into very high-scoring affairs, with the teams combining to average 82 points in the last four meetings. The winning side in this span has scored 45 or more.

WAYNE'S WORLD: Former All-American RB Wayne Cummerlander will enter the Hall of Fame this weekend as part of a five-person class. A 1980 graduate, Cummerlander was eighth-string as a freshman before a memorable JV debut of three carries for 233 yards and three TD's. He left as the school's all-time leader in yards (2,454) and carries (669) despite voluntarily moving to fullback as a senior, when he carried just a few times per game. Otterbein went to the I-Formation that season and had nobody else that could handle the physical demands.

COACH DOUP COMMENTS:

On the midseason bye week:

"I love moving our bye week from early in the season to midway through. It revitalizes our coaches, rejuvenates the players and allows everyone to just take a breath. I think the time off has helped some guys get healthy and also regrouped us mentally. The batteries are recharged."

On Wayne Cummerlander speaking with the team after Tuesday's practice:

"He delivered a great message and it's one our group needed to hear. He started his Otterbein journey about as low on the depth chart as you could, but was patient and always remained ready for his chance. Wayne is incredibly deserving to enter our Hall of Fame and is just a great ambassador for our department to this day. He doesn't just sit there and talk. He keeps his thoughts real, he keeps his message relatable and is a great person."

On the matchup with Heidelberg:

"It's a big deal to play for the Rhine River Cup. We have new faces, they have new faces but I expect it to be another typical showdown between us. The game is always fun because Scott Donaldson and I are very tight. We love each other like brothers for 51 weeks of the year, but this one is a little different. Our staffs genuinely like each other and will enjoy squaring off again when that whistle blows."
