GAME NOTES:

RECENT HISTORY: Otterbein has won 14-straight games in the series, including a 41-27 win last year in Westerville after opening up a 41-6 lead with 9:34 to play in the fourth quarter. The Muskies never stopped playing, posting three TD's down the stretch to significantly shrink the final margin.

GREEN WITH ENVY: Junior punter Luke Green-Lauber currently leads the OAC with 10 punts downed inside the 20-yard line and ranks second with a 39.5 average, sitting only behind Heidelberg All-American Austin Baker. LGL also has a long of 69 yards this season, best in the league, in addition to forcing six fair catches.

OH, RYAN COOLER: Junior Ryan Tuchow was everywhere last week in racking up a career-high 17 tackles against Heidelberg. The inside linebacker ranks fifth in the OAC in tackles per game (9.5) and is tied for second with 10.5 of those for a loss.

JACOB'S FIELD: Sophomore linebacker Jacob Tiell, playing on the outside, had a career-best 14 stops last week. He also leads the team with 4.5 sacks and plays a key role covering kicks on special teams.

COME BACK SONG: Safety Niall Lewison, a redshirt sophomore on the field, was recently chosen as one of three weekly nominees for the Mayo Clinic Comeback Player of the Year Award in college football. He was selected Tuesday alongside Purdue QB David Blough and Washington DB Jordan Miller. There will be 30 nominees over a 10-week period, with six chosen for general scholarship fund donations and three earning a trip to the Fiesta Bowl.

COACH DOUP COMMENTS:

On the miscues against Heidelberg:

"Missed opportunities like that are very damaging, especially for us trying to get going offensively right now. It's a different game with Heidelberg if we get some points on the board in that first half. We moved the ball pretty well down the field but need to finish drives off. The way things have been going, we need some of those confidence boosters."

On getting back on the road after a month-long stretch at home:

"We haven't gone anywhere in a while and it will be good to help get our mind right. Muskingum isn't that far, but hopefully the bus ride helps us relax and get mentally prepared to perform."

On the defense continuing to play well:

"The message is to just keep playing. They are doing a good job making teams have to really drive on them, but just giving up a few big plays here and there. I want them to remain who they are and keep plugging along."

On facing Muskingum:

"Muskingum plays us tough over there and has a new coaching staff this year, so we will probably encounter some different things on both sides of the ball. They need/want to win just as much as we do and improve their record. We have to prepare the right way and stay together."
