GAME NOTES:

TAKE A CIP: Sophomore defensive end Nick Cipriano leads the team and ranks sixth in the OAC with six sacks on the year. He had two last week at Marietta, including a forced fumble.

RED ALERT: Junior slot receiver George Redding tallied career-highs of nine catches for 188 yards last week at Marietta. He also averaged 33.5 yards per kickoff return and now has 13 more receptions than the next closest Cardinal.

SO LONG, CAPTAIN: All-OAC linebacker, and team captain, Ryan Tuchow will be playing in his final college game this Saturday. He patiently waited behind some upperclassmen his first two years before taking over in the middle as a junior, leading to 94 stops. He currently has 196 tackles for his career and already ranks top-10 in program history in TFL (28).

ACTION JACKSON: Wilmington outside linebacker Ameer Jackson currently ranks second in the league at 91 total tackles this fall. He made 14 a couple weeks back against nationally-ranked John Carroll, including three for a loss.

RECENT SERIES HISTORY: Otterbein has topped Wilmington 12-straight times in this series, including a 34-24 decision last year on the road after trailing 20-7 early. The Cards pounded the ball with senior Dakota Smith, who carried 39 times for over 200 yards and four TD's.

COACH DOUP COMMENTS:

On his senior class as a whole:

"They have done everything I've asked, and more. Throw the record out, and this has been one of my most enjoyable seasons just with a group of young men. In regards to leadership, you name it and they have done it. I've watched them hold us together through a difficult time, and I couldn't ask for anything more."

On George Redding providing a little bit of everything:

"George has become a better route runner, better in the return game and has just shown consistent improvement with all we put on his plate. He's evolving into the dynamic athlete we need and I'm excited to keep watching him grow, on and off the field."

On All-OAC linebacker Ryan Tuchow's evolution the past four years:

"I personally recruited him, so we had a great relationship even before he arrived to campus. He and I talk every day, and being able to bounce ideas off him has been a great dynamic. Ryan has grown up a lot and really matured into a solid young man. That's evident by how many of our young guys look up to him now."

On his close friend Bryan Moore, and the job he has done leading the Wilmington program:

"Bryan is a great coach and his players respond to him. It all starts with recruiting, and he's gotten some great athletes to come in there and start buying into the culture. They are still really young across the board, but you can see him adding playmakers and the program starting to believe. I think he's done a great job representing Wilmington."
