GAME NOTES:

RECENT HISTORY: Otterbein and Ohio Wesleyan are set for a third-straight meeting, with the Cardinals claiming the first two by scores of 36-15 and then 10-7 last year. Prior to resuming this series, the two schools had not met since 1989.

WEATHER THE STORM: Many fans will remember last year's showdown in Westerville for its pair of weather delays due to heavy rain and lightning. The game took nearly six hours to complete.

DE-NIALL: Safety Niall Lewison helped Otterbein survive last year's contest in what was his first game after missing all of 2017 with an injury. He came off the edge in the final seconds to block a potential OWU game-tying field-goal attempt.

AYE AYE, CAPTAIN: Seniors Ryan Tuchow, Winston Spiker, Anthony Andrews and redshirt junior Niall Lewison were selected teams captain for this season by teammates.

D-D-D-DEFENSE: Otterbein's first-string defense held the Battling Bishops to single-digit points each of the first two meetings, allowing seven last season and just six the year prior. OWU finished with 15 points in the 2017 matchup, but generated nine through a safety and late TD against Otterbein's second unit.

STARTS UP FRONT: The Cardinals return their entire offensive line from last year as Nick Hopper, Winston Spiker, Anthony Andrews, Josh Davis and Jared Conover boast a combined 72 starts under their belts. Spiker leads the way, having started all 30 career games, while junior Cameron Liford is an up-and-comer as well.

MORE THE MERRIER: Otterbein features its largest roster in quite some time as the program welcomed 75 new faces and approximately 150 total players into preseason camp.

COACH DOUP COMMENTS:

On first week of regular season:

"We are all excited, just to be back in the flow and to play somebody else for real. It's always tough beating on each other all camp. I don't think it matters who the opponent is, where it is or what time it is. It's just a great feeling knowing we are about to play."

On past defensive success against OWU, and focus this time around:

"We just need to stick to the game plan, do your assignment, fly around and get 11 helmets to the ball. I think we are pretty quick on defense, so playing with speed should be our best asset."

On junior quarterback Bryce Hall:

"Bryce got his feet wet toward the end of last season and we need him to stay within himself, do what he's been taught and keep improving. I'm excited for him and looking to see consistent progress. He knows he's the guy and it should be fun to see what he can do on Saturday."

On the recent series with Ohio Wesleyan and expectations for a third matchup:

"They will come out guns blazing. It's a non-league game but feels like a bit of a rivalry considering we are only 20 minutes apart, and there is that natural OAC/NCAC competition. They are physical, have a lot of guys back and are playing at home. Both of us probably feel much improved from last year."
