GAME NOTES:

RECENT HISTORY: Otterbein and Baldwin Wallace have split the past two meetings, each winning on its home field. The Cards claimed a 37-29 victory two years back before BW responded with a convincing 33-3 triumph last year in Berea.

CLASSY MOVE: Nigel Chatman was selected OAC 'Defensive Player of the Week' following a vote from the league's Sports Information Directors and conference office. He was second team All-OAC last year and ranked top-10 in the OAC in tackles for loss.

LEAVE YOUR OPTIONS OPEN: The Cards saw a variety of receivers in the passing game at OWU, as 10 different players caught at least one pass. Starters Dylan Tuggle and Dom Ross both had four grabs for over 50 yards, but many faces remain vying for opportunities.

SAFETY FIRST: Free safety and team captain Niall Lewison, an All-OAC selection last year, picked right back up where he left off by matching a career-high 15 tackles at OWU. He also blocked an extra-point attempt.

NUMBER CRUNCHING: Otterbein held advantages over Ohio Wesleyan in total yards, total plays, first downs, time of possession and yard per play. The Bishops, however, held a crucial 3-0 edge in takeaways that proved to be a difference maker.

HALL OF FAME: Otterbein enshrines a 12-member HOF class on Saturday, featuring six living inductees and another six being honored posthumously. Included is former All-American cornerback Art Stovall, the freshman-year roommate of now head coach Tim Doup.

COACH DOUP COMMENTS:

On the emotions of grieving while also trying to move forward without Nigel Chatman:

"Last weekend was emotional and that result does not define us. We need to live hour-by-hour, day-by-day and week-by-week right now in order to heal. We will slowly move forward, together as a team, and take whatever comes with it."

On the solid defensive play at Ohio Wesleyan:

"They played really well and only gave up maybe 2-3 bad plays. It's a totally different game if you take those couple mistakes out and we don't put our defense in bad spots. We had a lapse for less than two minutes and it probably cost us. We need to come away with more points and help them out."

On playing at home for the first time this season:

"We still have a lot to deal with but I think being at home will help. Our kids are excited to play in front of what will likely be a big crowd. It's about plugging away every Saturday and seeing what happens."

On the challenges that Baldwin Wallace presents:

"BW is so fast and can run on both sides of the ball, so it's about trying to slow them down. They give you problems with different fronts and motions to keep you off balance. We need to read our keys, recognize what they are doing sooner than later, and not short-circuit during the game."

On his college roommate, Art Stovall, going into the Hall of Fame:

"It's a special thing seeing him inducted and just an overall great accomplishment. I think it shows what kind of person and athlete he was. We are all very excited for Art and his entire family."
