GAME NOTES:

RECENT HISTORY: Ohio Northern has won the last six-straight matchups, including a low-scoring 13-7 decision last year during Otterbein's Homecoming in Westerville. The last win came during Doup's first season at the helm in 2012, when the Cards posted a 24-13 triumph in the season finale.

GIVE ME THE GREEN LIGHT: Senior All-OAC punter Luke Green-Lauber helped Otterbein keep momentum throughout a field-position battle with John Carroll. He averaged 42.1 yards across nine punts, with four inside the 20 and pinning a pair at the 1 and 6-yard lines.

BETTER THAN ON PAPER: Otterbein's defense has been more stingy than what the stats page might read. The unit had to take over inside its own red zone twice at Ohio Wesleyan (allowing 10 points) and then saw Baldwin Wallace score 21 defensive points. If you were to take those points out of the equation, the Cardinal defense has allowed just 16.7 per game.

LOSS FOR WORDS: The defense currently ranks second in the league in tackles for loss (21) and third in most sacks (8). Jacob Tiell, Austin Torr and David Kukucka all lead the way with three TFL's.

TIME WILL TELL: Otterbein has finished with a higher time of possession than all three of its opponents this season. The Cards are averaging 31:23 of game time right now with the ball.

THE BACK IS BACK: ONU All-American running back Christiaan Williams, who missed all of last fall with an injury, is back for the Polar Bears looking to build on his early-career success. He is a 2x first team All-OAC pick and is currently averaging 107 ypg. so far this season.

COACH DOUP COMMENTS:

On the one-possession battle with No. 14 John Carroll:

"There are no moral victories here... I was mad we lost and so was everyone else. But, with that being said, you can tell we are getting better. In a game like that, we have to figure out a way to get over that hump and win. That was the first week I thought we really focused and just played football after everything that's happened recently. I felt good and we are ready to keep playing with the same intensity."

On punter Luke Green-Lauber's impact:

"Luke does whatever we need him to do. He's excellent at his role and embraces whatever the situation calls for, whether that's a coffin corner or booming one and trying to flip field position. He's an All-OAC guy for a reason and you have to trust someone with his experience and resume."

On needing to score more points:

"We have to score in the red zone, bottom line. The offense has been alright moving the ball but we haven't been able to finish drives. We had our opportunities down on that side of the field against John Carroll but didn't take advantage, whether that's making a kick or finishing all the way. Until we do that, we won't succeed the way we want to."

On anticipation heading up to Ohio Northern:

"I haven't been part of a night game up there, so it should be fun. They are athletic, have a great running back and coming off a tough loss. Christiaan Williams is a special athlete and (Austin) Eick leads the conference in touchdown catches. We have our hands full but I'm excited to meet that challenge."
