GAME NOTES:

RHINE ABOUT IT: Otterbein and Heidelberg squared off in the first-ever college football game played on German soil in 1992, which ended in a 7-7 tie. The two schools have been playing for the Rhine River Cup ever since, with the Cards holding a 14-12-1 advantage. Heidelberg has won the past two matchups.

BYE FELICIA: The Cards are looking to put an emotional and whirlwind first half of the year behind them. Otterbein is 5-2 off a bye week under Doup, although the last two have been defeats at the hands of Heidelberg.

PHARMER'S TAN: Freshman QB Logan Pharmer made his first college start for the Tan and Cardinal at Mount Union, although the newcomer has appeared in every game this season. He ended a decorated career at Mapleton HS with 9,382 yards and 102 passing touchdowns, both area records, en route to earning Division 7 State Player of the Year honors. Pharmer was 10 of 16 for 153 yards and a pair of TD's in the second half at Ohio Northern recently.

O'CONNER, WHERE ART THOU: Junior LB Derrick O'Conner received his first college start last week at Mount Union, making eight tackles, and now ranks sixth on the team in stops. He is also a thrower for the track and field program.

HIGH-SCORING HEIDELBERG: The Student Princes currently lead the entire nation in total offense (558.2) and also rank top-10 nationally at over 47 points per game. Quarterback Jimmy Gephart has tossed 18 TD's and just two picks, with all receiving scores going to the three-headed monster of Maceo Matthews, Keivon Belcher and Dimitri Penick.

COACH DOUP COMMENTS:

On the much-needed midseason bye week:

"The bye week has mainly helped us from a mental standpoint, just getting away for a few days to revamp. Everyone still has bumps and bruises because this is football, but we feel strong. I think it did wonders for us."

On playing in Tiffin at night:

"It's an unbelievable environment, with canons and fireworks and students right on top of you and loud noise everywhere. They do it right and create a unique Division III atmosphere. Our guys will need to concentrate, but we are looking forward to playing in that wild setting."

On slowing down Heidelberg's high-powered offense:

"They have weapons everywhere and are big up front. Our guys need to focus on their own individual assignments and what they have been instructed all week. If Heidelberg starts rattling off scores, then we need to find a way and match that."

On who has the better bald head between he and Heidelberg head coach Scott Donaldson:

"We are fairly even in terms of the ball head, although mine is probably a little bigger. He does go with the full beard and I tend to prefer the clean look, or a goatee if I want to push the limits. We both require a lot of stocking caps to keep warm in the Ohio winter. Everyone knows how close we are, and this game is really fun because of our friendship."
