GAME NOTES:

RECENT HISTORY: Otterbein had won 14-straight matchups in this series prior to last season, when the Muskies scored twice in the fourth quarter to escape with a victory. The winning TD came with four seconds remaining, capping an 11-play drive lasting 5:15 of game time.

WHAT'S THAT SCHMEL: Sophomore Luke Schmeling continues handling a bit of everything. He contributed 145 total offensive yards at Heidelberg, completing 5 of 7 passes and then rushing for 79 yards and a pair of scores. He also returns kicks and plays some wide receiver.

REED ALL ABOUT IT: Junior Reed Tucker delivered career highs of nine catches, for 126 yards, and two touchdowns at Heidelberg. He is now in his second year for the Cards after transferring from Ashland prior to last season.

WHAT UP BRO: Senior Grant Nolder and younger brother Greg (sophomore) are enjoying a final season together after growing up near Muskingum in the tri-valley area. Grant, having played in 25 career games, rotates in on the defensive line while Greg is a rising linebacker who recently made his first career start. Both hold over 3.30 grade-point averages.

TOUGH SLEDDING: The combined record of Otterbein opponents is currently 29-7 so far this season, as only one team (ONU) has more than one loss. The Cards have played two nationally-ranked teams, including last year's national runner-up, and a Heidelberg squad leading the nation in total offense. The Combined record of Otterbein's next four opponents is 7-17 at the moment.

COACH DOUP COMMENTS:

On returning to Memorial Stadium after five weeks between home games:

"It's been a lot of hours on the bus. I think it will be good for our guys to get back home, because all of your home games are usually more memorable. Our parents are awesome and always travel well, but it's nice to play in front of some other familiar faces. It will be a good feeling to settle back in."

On Reed Tucker's emergence at Heidelberg:

"We have been preaching that someone has to step up and make plays on offense, so it was great to see Reed emerge last week. He has been a little banged up so I think he's starting to feel decent again. Now the expectations will stay and we hope he continues being a weapon out there."

On Muskingum's three-headed rushing attack of Brody Hahn, Bernard Johnson and Jeffrey Curtis:

"We need to be aware of who is in the backfield and what their strengths are. The game plan will stay the same in terms of what looks Muskingum might give, but our front seven will need to focus on personnel and be ready for power or speed."

On his favorite Halloween candy and favorite costume:

"Oh my, there are so many options because I like all kinds of candy. I would have to say the favorite is a good Twix bar. My most memorable costume is probably when my wife and I attended a Halloween party a few years back. She went as a sheriff and I was, of course, the prisoner."
