GAME NOTES:

BOST ABOUT IT: Freshman running back Jordan Bost-Floyd ran everywhere last week at Capital, finishing with 17 carries for 146 yards and three touchdowns. The Cleveland native, making just his second career start, also caught four passes for another 21 yards en route to earning OAC 'Offensive Player of the Week' honors.

YOUNG BLOOD: Bost-Floyd isn't the only true freshman making an impact, lining up alongside classmates Logan Pharmer (QB) and Zack Martin at center. Gary Moaney has started the last four games at cornerback, Ethan Tackett opened the game last week at outside linebacker, and a handful of other youngsters are rotating in on the defensive line and special teams.

CATCH A TAN: Otterbein will need to slow down Marietta senior running back Tanner Clark, who has rushed for over 2,000 yards since the beginning of last season and currently stands with 2,833 for his career. He has tallied 37 touchdowns in college (32 rushing, 5 receiving), including 21 last year alone.

RECENT SERIES HISTORY: Otterbein had beaten Marietta six-straight times under Doup until last season's 43-21 loss to the Pioneers, who ended that campaign 7-3 overall with narrow losses to John Carroll (27-24) and Baldwin Wallace (30-28). The Cards won 48-14 in their last visit to Don Drumm Stadium in the 2017 season finale.

COACH DOUP COMMENTS:

On a growing group of freshmen playing key roles:

"We knew there was a strong possibility that quite a few from this class would see the field early. I didn't imagine we would have nine out there on Saturday with just offense and defense, but it's exciting to see them perform. We are teaching as fast as we can and they are rolling with the punches."

On looking to contain Marietta All-American running back Tanner Clark:

"He is faster than you think, and more elusive than you think, but everyone already knows that in our league. He may not have quite the same stats right now that he did this time last year, but that's partially because teams are focusing on him more. It's a big challenge for us because Tanner is a special player, but they are balanced and can hurt you other places as well."

On heading to see Marietta's new blue/gray field for the first time, and other venues that stick out:

"Boise State (blue) and Eastern Washington (red) come to mind for sure. Marietta has become a very unique place to play with the new field, the enclosed stone walls and stadium right there on the river."

On a sixth road game this fall, one last pizza order for the team and his favorite toppings:

"Believe it or not, I am usually a mushroom guy... and then also probably some banana pepper slices in there. I will never do anchovies."
