RECENT HISTORY: Otterbein had won 12-straight meetings in the series prior to last year's wild finale in Westerville. The Cardinals led 27-20 in the closing minute, but Wilmington took advantage of a short field and drove 49 yards in 1:04 of game time. The Quakers converted a pair of third downs, then Itika Wynn Jr. caught a touchdown and two-point conversion.

REED ALL ABOUT IT: Senior wideout Reed Tucker led all players with seven catches and 100 yards in the opener at Ohio Northern. He's now in his third season for the Cardinals since transferring from Ashland back in 2018.

SAFETY KIT: Otterbein features a pair of new safeties in the secondary after deciding to move All-American Fred Hardgrove over to corner. Thomas More transfer Caleb Rice and true sophomore Max Walden are now roaming the backend, combining for 15 tackles last week.

KEEPING UP WITH THE JONES': Junior tight end Jeb Jones (an Academic All-OAC qualifier) scored Otterbein's lone TD in the opener at ONU. He played in all 10 games as a sophomore, starting the final six, and had multiple receptions in four of those outings. His older sister, Jacy, recently played basketball for the Cardinals.

HANG ONTO THAT PIGSKIN: Otterbein had three turnovers in the opener and another two fumbles that were not lost.

COACH DOUP COMMENTS:

On areas that need cleaned up, following the first football games in 16 months:

"I thought the defense played pretty well, but we gave up two big plays that really hurt us. From an offensive standpoint, I think it's obvious that we can't turn the ball over. You just can't."

On his close relationship with Bryan Moore, and how he's slowly been improving Wilmington:

"He has tough kids. Their mantra is "TUFF Street" and you can see why. Those guys play hard and he's done a great job with their culture. They have athletes everywhere and remain well-coached."

On the utilization of Fred Hardgrove:

"People are always going to be aware of where he is on the field, either side of the ball. COVID affected us a bit recently, so we came up with a plan last week accordingly. It will be a week-to-week strategy moving forward with how we want to use him, but he's a freak athlete that can do multiple things."

On handling Wilmington quarterback Kyle Barrett:

"He has matured over the years and typically makes great decisions. They have a great core of receivers around him and they've all been together for awhile. He is usually in sync, very poised and understands their offense. Our job is to try and make him uncomfortable."
