Linebacker Greg Nolder, the current team-leader in tackles, comes around the edge to hit Jake Floria during the last meeting between these schools. Both players are now veteran leaders.

RECENT HISTORY: After not playing this past spring due to the league's condensed/divisional schedule, these two programs now reconvene for Ohio Athletic Conference play. Otterbein began its league slate last week against Baldwin Wallace while John Carroll had a bye.

LAST MEETING: The underdog Cardinals went toe-to-toe with the No. 14-ranked Blue Streaks during Homecoming of 2019, ultimately settling for a 14-7 loss after a defensive slugfest. The game was tied at halftime, but a score late in the third quarter by JCU held up as the difference.

CORRALLED BY COLTON: Junior linebacker Colton Doup tied for a game-high 10 tackles against BW, including three of those for a loss. He is the oldest son of head coach Tim Doup.

HANG ONTO THAT PIGSKIN: Otterbein is minus 5 so far in turnover ratio, and will need to secure the ball against the always-stingy John Carroll defense. Every listed starter on the JCU two-deep is either a junior or senior.

LOOKING FOR A WIN: Both sides are searching for their first victory of the season. Otterbein had a narrow defeat vs. Ohio Wesleyan and then trailed 7-3 in the third quarter against BW before things went array. John Carroll fell (21-14) to a very solid Washington & Jefferson team in its opener despite outgaining the Presidents.

HOMECOMING RECORD: Otterbein is 5-4 on Homecoming over the last decade, but hasn't won on this weekend since a blowout over Wilmington in 2017. There was no game last fall due to the pandemic.

WEEKLY COMMENTS:

On the return of Homecoming:

"We got a taste of it with our football alumni function the first week. I saw a former quarterback (Luke Hanks) for the first time in 20 years. It's always great to reconnect with people you don't see regularly. I love watching a bit of the morning parade and what it adds to the atmosphere. It's always good for the community to have alums back on campus."

On quarterback Bryce Hall:

"We are moving forward with Bryce... but modifying some thing to hopefully be more efficient as a group. We need him to keep plugging away and making the correct reads. We don't want him forcing throws and allowing the defense to step in front."

On the Otterbein defense:

"They have done a pretty good job keeping us in the game... but we are putting them on the field too much. It becomes hard to stop the run when you get tired, and you saw that in the second half last week. We need to get more first downs offensively to let them rest a bit, and not get so worn down. That unfortunately happened against BW as things went array in the third quarter."

On impressions of John Carroll:

"They are big and strong... a well-coached team with not just a lot of seniors, but fifth-year seniors who decided to come back. It's a very mature group that has played together for a long time."
