RECENT HISTORY: These two schools have split the past four matchups after Otterbein had won 14-straight meetings since 2004.

LAST MEETING: Last season, the Muskies overcame a two-possession deficit to escape Memorial Stadium with a narrow 26-21 victory. Otterbein was in line for a first-and-goal down the stretch, but offsetting penalties brought the ball back and Muskingum came up with a turnover shortly thereafter.

ARMANI WELL SUITED: Sophomore wide receiver Armani Burton had the best game of his young career last weekend, catching eight passes for 107 yards at Heidelberg. The sizeable 6-2 target hails from the Cleveland area.

NEW KID ON THE BLOCK: After being forced to miss time at the beginning of the fall, promising freshman running back Ahjay Cody is firmly in the mix. He ran for 91 yards at Mount Union, and then carried another 12 times last Saturday in Tiffin. Watch out for the Euclid product to keep developing moving forward...

NOLDER BROTHER: Senior linebacker Greg Nolder, a team captain and loyal teammate, ranks fifth in the league at 8.3 tackles per game. He is a returning All-OAC selection that also holds a 3.78 GPA majoring in finance. Show him the money!

MUSKINGUM TIES: The Cardinals have multiple coaches on staff with Muskie ties. David Carroll, Terry Geiger, Brandon Schon and Granger Long all played football in New Concord, defensive coordinator Al Moore is from the Zanesville area, and Assistant SID Jake Stewart is a former lacrosse player at Muskingum.

FLYING HIGHER, WITH TERRY GEIGER: Speaking of Geiger... Otterbein's new Offensive GA had a standout game against the Cardinals as an undergrad. He made five catches for 124 yards during the 2018 meeting, including TD grabs of 14 and 44 yards.

MUHAMMAD GOLLY: Senior Siraj Muhammad has performed consistently this year in the backfield, ranking fifth in the league in rushing despite missing one game with an injury. He is averaging 70 yards per game and 4.5 per carry thus far.

HALL PASS: Quarterback Bryce Hall leads the OAC with 223 passing attempts this year, and ranks fifth at 228 yards per game. But, the veteran signal caller has also thrown nine picks. He will look to stay clean entering the homestretch and continue moving his unit down the field in the right direction.

McGINNIS RECORDS: All-OAC standout Cortez McGinnis has made a name for himself in a Muskie jersey. The senior was named to the D3Football.com Team of the Week earlier this season and has two defensive touchdowns. He returned a fumble against Waynesburg (the program's first scoop-and-score since 2017, and then housed an 86-yard INT against John Carroll a few weeks later). Keep your eyes peeled for No. 0 when Otterbein has the ball.

STANDING IN THE HALL OF FAME: Otterbein will induct its 13th HOF Class come Saturday morning on campus and then recognize the 2021 group at halftime. Marcia Baer, Porter Miller, Connie Richardson, Ally (Tobin) Detwiler, Kevin Weakley and the 2010 women's soccer team will all be enshrined. Read more about them on otterbeincardinals.com!
