

Otterbein University
CARDINALS

(1-2, 0-2 OAC)

VS.

Marietta College
PIONEERS

(1-1, 0-1 OAC)

SERIES HISTORY: Marietta has taken the last three matchups in this series after Otterbein had won six in a row prior.

CLOSE CALL: Otterbein led almost the entire game but finished short in a 32-26 loss at Wilmington, as the Quakers scored a go-ahead touchdown with under five minutes left.

MISSED CHANCES: The Cardinals racked up more than 500 yards of total offense, 36:47 time of possession and 27 first downs last week while getting into opponent territory seven times during in the second half. Unfortunately, Otterbein was only able to chart a pair of field goals after intermission as the Quakers stayed within striking distance.

NEED FOR MEADE: Senior kicker Caleb Meade was voted OAC Special Teams Player of the Week after tying Otterbein's single-game record with four made field goals (23, 31, 26, 20), joining John Sims (2004 vs. Defiance) and Jim Hoyle (1980 vs. Kenyon). Meade also made both extra points to contribute 14 on the scoreboard.

HARD ACT TO FOLLOW: Junior QB Eason Hardouin threw for a career-high 361 yards last week, completing 55% of his throws in the process. He was sacked four times but kept pushing forward.

A GOOD CHRISTIAN: Freshman tight end Christian Pataky is coming off a six-catch performance at Wilmington, finishing with 97 yards receiving and breaking a tackle near the goal line for a key first down late in the first half. His older brother, Alex, is a backup offensive lineman.

SIRAJ FOR THE CENTURY: Running back Siraj Muhammad ran for 125 and another score at Wilmington, his second game over 100 so far this season. He previously racked up 149 in the opener at Ohio Wesleyan.

ETTA EXPRESS: Marietta held on for a 14-13 victory over Dubuque in its opener and then had a bye. Last week, the Pios fell victim to No. 3-ranked Mount Union up in Alliance by a 55-7 count.

ANDY MAN: The Pioneers are led by 10th-year head coach Andy Waddle, who has the program 26-21 since the beginning of 2017.

BERGER KING: Marietta's Drake Neuberger is one of the top players in the country. The 2x All-American is the reigning OAC/Region 4 Co-Defensive Player of the Year. Able to stand up as a linebacker or play down on the edge, the graduate student already has five sacks through two games.

WELCOME BACK, TERRY: Recent Otterbein graduate assistant Terry Geiger returns to Westerville after spending last year coaching wide receivers for the Cardinals. He accepted a full-time position with Marietta this past summer.
