

SIGNIFICANCE OF NUMBER 5

Over a decade-long tradition, the Otterbein coaching staff annually selects one player each season to wear the No. 5 jersey. This is a yearly tribute to Grove City native and former QB Josh Worthington, who passed early Christmas morning, 2004, after his vehicle was struck by a drunk driver. He is remembered for the hard work, dedication and commitment he displayed as a promising young player. It is an honor and a privilege to be selected by the coaches to wear this number, which usually comes as a senior. You must not only be a respected player, but also demonstrate great character. Players to have been awarded this honor include:
