

MEN'S LACROSSE

WESTERVILLE, Ohio - Feb. 22, 2020

ALBION COLLEGE BRITONS

(2-0, 0-0 MIAA)

VS.

OTTERBEIN UNIVERSITY CARDINALS

(1-0, 0-0 OAC)

GAME PREVIEW:

Otterbein stays at home to finish opening week after launching its season in exciting fashion, emerging with an overtime victory over Wittenberg after the Tiger mounted a late comeback.

Xander Seal scored five times in the opener, but the Cards were held scoreless over the final 22 minutes of regulation. Nevertheless, Ben Lewis bounced in a walk-off goal with 92 seconds remaining in the extra session.

Zach Groene made a whopping 22 saves in the outing, easily a career-high, while Jordan Tobler caused three turnovers on the back line. Otterbein will need to improve at the faceoff X after Wittenberg won 17 of 21.

The Cards are looking for a second-straight win over Albion after winning 13-7 last year up in Michigan, in a game that was played at Detroit Country Day.

The Britons have already defeated Wooster (18-16) and Augustana (17-11) in a pair of shootouts. Jace Conley leads the way with 13 points so far while teammates Gerald Haadsma and Sam Puzevic are only in double digits already.

These sides have split the past six meetings, 3-3, in the series. Albion won a wild 9-8 triple overtime game in its last trip to Westerville.
