(6-2, 4-1 OAC)

MEMORIAL STADIUM - WESTERVILLE, OHIO (April 10)

GAME PREVIEW:

These cross-town rivals, separated by just 13 miles, get ready to square off under the lights in a critical OAC contest. The Cardinals will be finishing off a three-game homestand while the Crusaders just recently got back to action after a pair of games were canceled.

Capital holds a 4-3 edge in the all-time series, but has won the last three meetings. Otterbein fell 15-13 in Westerville (2018) and then 11-7 down in Bexley in the 2019 campaign.

Otterbein scored a program-record 28 goals against Wilmington, while Xander Seal set a new single-game record with 11 points alone.

Capital's only blemish this season is a 27-9 setback to league power John Carroll. Fifth-year journeyman CJ Hughes paces the team with 23 points with a balanced offense behind that.

Otterbein is also well-rounded on the attack, as six players boast double-digit points behind Seal's 30. He currently ranks fourth in the OAC for scoring.
