MEMORIAL STADIUM - WESTERVILLE, OHIO (March 13)

GAME PREVIEW:

Otterbein gets back on its home turf for the first time this season following a pair of road contests.

The Cardinals have claimed all three matchups in the series since Heidelberg created its program, winning by scores of 25-4, 12-2 and 19-5. This will be just the second meeting between the schools at Memorial Stadium, as the last two have taken place in Tiffin.

Senior Xander Seal and freshman Aidan Moore lead the club with seven points each thus far, while the Cardinal defense has been fairly stout. Goalie Zach Groene is a third-year starter.

Heidelberg has dropped a pair of lopsided contests with John Carroll and Ohio Northern this spring. Alex Bruder leads the offense with four goals while Liam Weaver has added two of his own.

During the most recent matchup in 2019, the game was tied 3-3 entering the second quarter before Otterbein blew things open. The Cardinals strung together 16 goals in a row, including four from Seal, en route to a commanding 59-19 shot advantage.
