OTTERBEIN UNIVERSITY
CARDINALS

(4-2, 3-1 OAC)

MEMORIAL STADIUM - WESTERVILLE, OHIO (April 3)

GAME PREVIEW:

Otterbein returns home after a couple weeks away, and looks to get back in the win column following a tough road loss at first-place Baldwin Wallace. In that game, the Yellow Jackets held a 10-3 lead at intermission and pulled away in the second half.

This will be a rematch of the season opener in Ada, where the Polar Bears emerged by one goal in a non-conference game. This showdown, however, will count toward the official OAC standings.

ONU started 3-0 but is looking to snap a three-game skid, having faced a difficult stretch that includes games against contenders Capital, BW and John Carroll. The Polar Bears did not score double-digit goals in any loss.

Xander Seal leads Otterbein with 16 points while three others have tallied between 10-12 on the spring. Goalie Zach Groene has made 49 saves so far this season.

ONU's Cameron Marous ranks fourth in the league at 24 points, coming on seven goals and then an OAC-high 17 assists. He had three helpers against Otterbein the first time around.

Ohio Northern has won the last three meetings, all very competitive and within just a few goals.
