With four starters returning, the Otterbein University men's basketball team will be looking to take the next step and grab a top spot in the conference in 2011-12. Head coach Dick Reynolds, preparing for his 40th-season, is bringing the Cardinals off a 13-13 campaign in 2010.

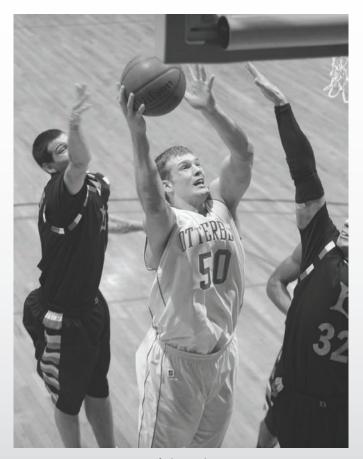

The Cards were picked to finish third in the Ohio Athletic Conference preseason coaches poll, coming in behind Marietta and John Carroll.

"It makes our guys know that their talent is respected," said Reynolds of the team's preseason selection. "It's now their job to do something with that talent, but it's nice that the conference recognizes the ability we have."

Leading the way will be senior center Chris Davis. Davis was named a preseason All-American by The Sporting News after earning first team All-OAC last year while leading the league in scoring (18.6 ppg.) and rebounding (11.0 rpg.). Also an all-district and all-region selection, Davis tallied 18 double-doubles in 26 games, earning OAC Player of the Week three times and finishing among the top-20 nationally in rebounding.

Junior forward Zach Bakenhaster enjoyed a breakout season in 2010, compiling averages of eight points and six rebounds per game. He also led the team with 27 blocked shots, serving as a nice compliment to Davis down low.

"They are able to give us one look down low, and then our smaller lineup can give us another look," said Reynolds of the team's balance. "Chris and Bake work well together, and also combine nicely with Max (Van Meter) and Steve Isaac. So I think we've got a couple different looks we can use."

Chris Davis

Senior Brice Rausch returns to help lead the backcourt after averaging 13.5 ppg. and earning All-OAC honorable mention as a junior. He shot 43% from the field last winter while scoring 15 or more points in nine contests.

Rounding out the returning starters will be sophomore Max Van Meter, while classmate C.J. Julian, who started 14 of 25 contests last season, also returns. The two combined for 49 steals and nearly 18 points per game last season as freshmen, and will be looking to elevate their play in their second season of college ball.

Senior point guard Mark Louks is back for one final campaign, as is fellow senior Steve Isaac. Both have seen minutes in key games throughout the past three seasons.

The squad is also excited to receive contributions from a variety of newcomers, most notably Walsh University transfer Jason Davis and freshman guards RaNeal Ewing and Andy Yazrombek.

"We're more experienced and talented, and look better on paper all the way around than we have been for awhile," Reynolds said. "Then you add in the newcomers who give us some added quickness and variety on the perimeter, and it makes everything exciting to look forward to."

HEAD COACH DICK REYNOLDS

Head Coach Dick Reynolds has established himself as one of the most successful coaches in the 109-year history of the Ohio Athletic Conference (OAC).

The 68-year-old Reynolds, who also serves as the director of athletics at Otterbein, was inducted into the Ohio Basketball Hall of Fame and the Otterbein College Athletic Hall of Fame in 2009.

Coach Reynolds reached the pinnacle of his career during the 2001-02 season, guiding the Cardinals to their first national championship. Otterbein finished at 30-3, winning the OAC regular-season title and post-season tournament — that after being picked to finish sixth in the conference in a preseason coaches' poll.

In 2002, Reynolds was selected NCAA Division III Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches; and for the second time in his career, Ohio College Coach of the Year by his Ohio coaching peers in balloting conducted by the Columbus Dispatch. He also earned this honor in 1981.

After 39 seasons, he ranks first among OAC skippers on the all-time career victory list with 644. Nationally, Reynolds sits fourth for victories among active coaches and sits sixth all-time in NCAA Division III. Among all NCAA divisions, Reynolds holds down the 39th spot, just 30 wins away from legendary UCLA coach John Wooden.

Reynolds notched career win 600 on Dec. 09, 2006, a 95-84 win over Muskingum at home. Only nine other coaches have reached that mark in NCAA Division III.

A nine-time OAC Coach of the Year selection, Reynolds became the first coach in the OAC to take teams to conference titles over four different decades. He has taken his cagers to at least a share of the regular-season conference title 11 times, earning it outright in 1986, 1987, 1990, 1991, 1992 and 2002; and sharing it in 1973, 1976, 1981, 1985 and 2000. The 1978, 1986, 1989, 1991, 1992, 1993, 1994 and 2002 teams won the conference's post-season tournament.

His overall record stands at 644-409 — for an average of 16.5 wins a season — en route to constructing a program which has often placed Otterbein in the national spotlight.

The Cardinals have advanced into the NCAA Division III Tournament 13 times under Reynolds' tutelage, winning the national championship in 2002 and reaching the Final Four in 1981 and 1991

Other NCAA Tournament finishes include: the regionals in 1978, the regionals in 1985, the quarterfinals in 1986, the regionals in 1987, the quarterfinals in 1989, the first round in 1990, the sectional finals in 1992, the second round in 1993, the first round in 1994 and the second round in 1999.

Despite difficult scheduling and the pressures of maintaining a top-flight program, Reynolds' coaching philosophy has consistently produced outstanding results.

"The key is to get everything we can out of every individual on the team," Reynolds says. "Every player is a contributor throughout the entire year. It pays to encourage total team involvement."

Reynolds has a simple formula for his success.

"What I like to be able to do is put a team on the floor that is well disciplined, well groomed, plays together and plays hard," he says. "If you have those qualities, combined with talent, you're going to win.

"If you're not well groomed, you're not disciplined," Reynolds continues. "If you're not disciplined, you won't play together. And if you don't play together, you usually don't play hard."

Despite his success — 19 seasons with 18 or more victories — Reynolds remains content with his current coaching duties.

"Coaching to me is not necessarily wins and losses," Reynolds says. "Yes, you like the wins, but I've stayed at Otterbein because I like the situation. I like the people. I like what I'm doing here."

Following graduation from Otterbein in 1965, where he was a 12-time letterman in football, basketball and track, Reynolds returned to his home town of London, Ohio, and taught seventh-grade science while serving as an assistant coach in football, basketball and track at the high school. He was inducted into the London Sports Hall of Fame in 1992.

Reynolds served three years in the U.S. Air Force (1966-69) as a personnel services officer in charge of recreation. His service teams compiled a 38-10 record.

He spent three seasons as assistant under Otterbein head coach Curt Tong, guiding the junior varsity squad to a 31-20 mark before taking over as head coach in 1972.

Reynolds and his wife, Ellen, live in Westerville. They have two children, Amanda and Chad, and five grandchildren.

A new era in Otterbein football began in the fall of 2005 as the Cardinals moved into a new home in Memorial Stadium.

"This completes the multi-year upgrade of our sports and recreational facilities," said then-Otterbein President Brent De-Vore.

The new $3.2 million grandstand, built on the same site of old Memorial Stadium, was dedicated on Sept. 17, 2006 shortly before Otterbein defeated cross-town rival Capital, 17-14, by scoring twice on its last two possessions of the game.

The new grandstand was financed through private funds, raised through the Clements Foundation and the Otterbein "O" Club, both long-time contributors to athletics and other academic programs at Otterbein.

The new grandstand, with handicap access, seats 2,400, including a section in the middle with 500 stadium chairs, and a press box with elevator. The stadium also features state-of-the-art locker rooms, a training room, equipment room, and "O" Club room.

Other recent improvements to Memorial Stadium include a new lighting system, courtesy of Cellular One, in 1996, and renovation of the outdoor track and field facilities in 1988 through a donation from the late Dorothy McVay, from Westerville. In 1989, the gridiron was named in honor of Dwight "Smokey" Ballenger, a 1939 graduate of Otterbein.

Over the last four years, Otterbein has added the Clements Recreational and Fitness Center, a new softball field, and new tennis courts; and an upgrade of the baseball field.

"With the addition of the new stadium, we have one of the best athletics complexes in the conference," said Bob Gatti, Otterbein Vice President for Student Affairs.

The Frank and Vida Clements Recreation and Fitness Center opened in the fall of 2002.

The $9.5 million center enhances the curriculum and clinical experiences for students preparing for careers in health, fitness and athletic training.

In addition, the center significantly increases the facilities for the athletic training, sport management, and health and fitness programs; increases the health, wellness and recreation programs for students, faculty and staff; enhances Otterbein's capacity to attract future students; and expands the opportunities for partnership with the wider Columbus community.

The center has two components: a 75,000 square-foot field house, complete with a sanctioned six-lane, 200-meter indoor track; and a two-story connector to the existing Rike Center, which features a high-tech cardiovascular fitness area, fully-equipped training and rehabilitation center, coaching offices, classrooms and a student lounge area.

Built in 1974, the Rike Center houses physical education facilities and offices. The domed roof encloses an intercollegiate hardwood basketball floor with seating for 3,100; equipped weight training room; two handball courts; and locker rooms for varsity teams and physical education classes. Conventional classrooms and offices are located on the perimeter.

A $300,000 gift from the Rike family of Dayton inaugurated the capital campaign to finance construction of the Rike Center, which was built for about $1.5 million.

In the spring of 2008, an $84,000 weight room was installed in the Rike Center, providing new flooring, free weights and equipment for use by student-athletes, students and staff. The project was spearheaded by the "O" Club with support from Robert Corbin '49, Tom Weisenstein and the Fishbaugh Memorial Fund.

Additional sports facilities at Otterbein include tennis courts, and separate fields for softball, baseball and soccer. A 2.5-mile cross country course, which meanders Alum Creek and traverses woods and farmland, opened in the fall of 1995.

Gifts from the Otterbein alumni and friends have helped provide educational opportunities through athletics for sportsminded students. Former student-athletes have continued their success in coaching, teaching, recreational and professional fields-evidence of quality educational experiences offered at Otterbein University.

The University

Otterbein University is a private, co-educational, comprehensive liberal arts institution founded in 1847 and affiliated with the United Methodist Church. Accredited since 1913 by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools, Otterbein has consistently placed high among peer institutions in U.S. News & World Report's "Guide to America's Best colleges" for over a decade. In the 2011 guide, Otterbein was named a "Top 10 Up-and-Comer" by its peers in the University-Master's (Midwest) category.

Location

It is located in Westerville, Ohio, a suburb of Columbus that is ranked 15th on Money Magazine's 2009 list of Best Places to Live.

Majors and Degrees

Otterbein enrolls more than 3,100 students, including full- and part-time undergraduates, adult learners, and students enrolled in The Graduate School. Master's degree programs are offered in education, business administration and nursing, including courses in our newly-accredited nurse anesthesia program in conjunction with Grant Medical Center. Otterbein's first doctorate program, doctor of nursing practice (DNP), began classes in spring 2011. Otterbein offers 73 majors, as well as individualized fields of study.

The Campus

Otterbein's 140-acre campus in the heart of Westerville includes the historic Towers Hall, constructed in 1872.

Renowned for its Department of Theatre and Dance, Otterbein students perform plays for the community in The Fritsche Theatre at Cowan Hall, which was renovated in 2005. The Department of Art displays art from students, faculty, the University's collection and visiting exhibits in Miller Gallery in the Art and Communication Building, Fisher Gallery in Roush Hall, and the Frank Museum of Art. A new permanent exhibit is the Presidents' Gallery, a historical and artistic display of all the University presidents, on the second floor of Towers Hall. The Department of Music also offers public performances of opera, symphony, marching band and student choral groups. Classes began in fall 2009 at both the newly built Center for Equine Studies and the University's Science Center, which has completed a $20 million renovation and addition.

Faculty

Otterbein's student-faculty ratio of 12:1 offers students the opportunity to receive personalized attention from their instructors. Over 90 percent of full-time faculty hold doctorates or equivalent terminal degrees. Professors are active in campus affairs, serve as advisers to students, and participate in a unique sabbatical program to research and study recent developments in their fields.

Athletics

Men and women compete in the Ohio Athletic Conference, NCAA Division III. There are ten varsity sports for both men and women. A complete intramural program is available to all students.

Fraternities and Sororities

Nearly 50 percent of Otterbein students participate in the six local sororities and six local fraternities.

Community Service

Otterbein offers many local community service opportunities for students and employees through its Center for Community Engagement, which strives to meet community needs through volunteerism, service-learning and community-based action research. Student volunteers serve in 14 different student-led organizations working with urban youth, senior citizens and animals at non-profit agencies and local schools. Otterbein offers more than 90 service-learning courses in which 1,200 students each year apply academic expertise to meet the needs of local and global communities. The University has been recognized nationally and listed on the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll for three consecutive years.

The Arts

Professional training programs are available in music, theatre, dance, and visual arts. There are numerous cultural events free to students, including music department events (orchestra, opera, band, choir concerts), visual arts exhibits of student and professional works, and the renowned Otterbein University Theatre.

Off-Campus Programs

A variety of off-campus programs are available, including foreign language study in Dijon, France and Segovia, Spain. Semester at Sea, a shipboard-campus program offered in cooperation with the University of Pittsburgh, enables students to take a variety of liberal arts courses while on cruise. Study opportunities also exist with the Washington Semester Plan, operated through the American University in Washington, D.C., the Philadelphia Center program in the Philadelphia area and Roehampton Institute in England. Army and Air Force ROTC is offered in conjunction with The Ohio State University. Internships provide experience in a student's chosen career field.

Costs

2011-2012 annual tuition is $29,550. Room and board for one year is $8,252. Eighty-two percent of our students receive financial aid.
