MATCH PREVIEW:

Otterbein closes out its non-conference schedule Sunday afternoon hosting Hanover at Memorial Stadium.

The Cardinals are looking to bounce back after a tough 2-1 loss against Ohio Wesleyan as the Battling Bishops connected on two corner kicks to defeat Otterbein.

Last time out, the Panthers dropped an overtime thriller, 1-0, against Spalding as the Eagles won on a penalty kick in the 97th minute. Hanover dominated the shot total owning a 29-6 advantage.

Otterbein and Hanover battled last season as the Cardinals bested the Panthers 2-1 in Hanover, Ind. Pau Piang scored the first goal while also registering an assist on Zach Lewis' goal in the 46th minute.

This will be the last out of conference game for the reigning Ohio Athletic Conference Champions as they open up conference play on the road against Mount Union next Saturday.
