MATCH PREVIEW:

Otterbein continues its non-conference schedule Saturday night hosting Transylvania University inside Memorial Stadium.

The Cardinals are looking to bounce back after falling 3-1 on the road a week ago to host Hanover. The Cards fell short in a physical matchup with the Panthers, playing a man down for the final 20 minutes following a red card.

In its last match Transylvania saw its offense sputter, being held off the score board in a 4-0 loss to Hope. The Pioneers played toe-to-toe with the Dutchmen through the first half, but saw a second half outburst from Hope that they could not match.

Otterbein and Transylvania battled last season as the then ranked #11 Cardinals escaped Lexington with a 2-1 overtime victory, thanks to a Kennedy Mensah header just two minutes into the OT period.

The Cards will look to defend home turf tonight before hitting the road next Wednesday to face Ohio Wesleyan.
