TRANSYLVANIA UNIVERSITY PIONEERS

(1-1-3, 0-0 HCAC)

VS.

OTTERBEIN UNIVERSITY CARDINALS

(3-1, 0-0 OAC)

GAME NOTES:

After defeating Hanover on Wednesday, Otterbein looks to continue upward as they host another home contest this weekend. The Transylvania Pioneers will travel from Lexington, Kentucky to Memorial Stadium to take on the Cardinals.

The Cardinals are hoping to carry over some offensive energy built up from the game against Hanover where they outshot the Panthers 25-1.

Otterbein currently leads 3-0 against Transylvania, having won all contests since 2018. Will Isaac and Joshua Conroy each claimed a goal on the Pioneers during the last meeting. The now seniors will be returning to the pitch looking to offer similar offensive power.

Isaac has had a play in six of the eight goals thus far for the Cardinals, scoring three of his own while assisting three others.

Otterbein sits 3-1 on the season after a tough road loss in Cleveland against Case Western Reserve. The Pioneers are looking to trend in the winning column as they sit at .500 overall.

The pioneers have tied three times this season, and each match has had a different starting keeper. The battle for the number one spot appears to be between Cade Terry, Nolan Yantz, and Collen Gudorf.

Transylvania heads into a new era as Ben Federici takes on the role of Head Coach for his first season. Federici, familiar with the Pioneer mascot leaves fellow OAC school Marietta College to pursue his head coaching career.
