GAME PREVIEW:

Otterbein officially gets underway to commence the 2019 season, hosting a mid-February clash with Centre as the first of six home games from now until May.

The Cardinals, returning all but one starter, are eager to hit the turf and looking for a winning season after ending each of the past two a game below the .500 mark.

Senior Abby Smoot is back after a single-season record 58 goals last year, while 2x All-OAC defender Cristiana Nicholas returns to roam the back line. Sophomores Kiera Mulcahy and Julia Karas combined for 164 of the team's 251 draw controls last spring.

Centre delivered an impressive 2018 season under head coach Monica Scott, who guided the Colonels to a 15-3 record in her first year at the helm and was named the SAA Coach of the Year.

The Colonels had a 13-game winning streak, losing to Capital in the opener before culminating losses in the league and NCAA Tournament. Centre did lose four all-region standouts from that run but returns some nice talent. Hannah Hardy had six goals in the season opener, an 18-9 loss to Roanoke.
