OAC QUARTERFINAL GAME PREVIEW:

Otterbein and Ohio Northern will meet for a third time this spring as the postseason gets underway. The league bracket was expanded to six teams for this unique year due to ongoing circumstances around a CoVID schedule.

The Cardinals, seeded fourth, are hosting the program's first OAC Tournament game ever and are back for the first time since 2015.

Ohio Northern, receiving the No. 5 seed after emerging in a tiebreaker with Marietta, is making its postseason debut. The Polar Bears dropped both matchups against Otterbein this spring, each decided by a handful of goals (see right).

Four Cardinals have scored over 30 goals, led by the 41 from senior Julia Karas. She and classmates Cam Finnegan, Victoria Eastep, Kiera Mulcahy and Katie Barber are being recognized pregame for a long-awaited Senior Day.

Macey Buchanan ranks third in the league at 75 draws while goalie Leah McNutt is a 3x OAC Defensive Player of the Week.

Annie McCarn and Sydney Kilgore form a dangerous 1-2 punch for ONU, combining to post 89 goals thus far. McCarn is the reigning OAC Offensive Player of the Week.

Capital hosts Marietta in Tuesday's other quarterfinal game, with John Carroll and Mount Union earning byes.
