MATCH PREVIEW:

The Otterbein women's soccer team looks to bounce back after suffering its first loss of the season a week ago in a high scoring 5-4 affair with Kenyon, followed up by its first tie 3-3 in double overtime with Adrian on Thursday.

The Cardinals all but had the game won leading 3-1 with only 20 minutes remaining until a late rally by Adrian, including the tying goal with just 1:34 remaining sent the game into overtime. The result was a 3-3 tie after neither team could score in either over time period.

The last time the Cardinals and Spartans met in women's soccer Otterbein walked away with a 6-0 win.

The Cardinals will look to get back in the win column today before hosting Wooster on Tuesday at 7 p.m.
