CARDINALS

(10-4-3, 6-1-2 OAC)

MATCH PREVIEW:

- Otterbein and BW will square up for the second time in ten days, although much more will be on the line this time around as the league's six-team tournament gets underway. Mount Union (5) heads to John Carroll (4) in tonight's other semifinal contest.
- Capital (1) awaits the lowest remaining seed on Thursday in the semifinal with the other advancing team heading to Ohio Northern. The winner of this bracket earns the OAC's automatic bid to compete in the upcoming NCAA Championships.
- The Cardinals left Berea with a 2-0 victory in the most recent contest, with Anjuli Anderson scoring just before intermission and then Camryn Earl adding an insurance goal less than eight minutes into the second half. Anderson ranks fourth in the league for most assists this fall.
- BW's Sydney Rice leads the OAC with 100 total shots this season and ranks sixth in overall scoring at 22 points. Yellow Jacket goalkeeper Katie Scott is fourth among players at her position with 84 saves, while counterpart Ella Schwertfager sits third in the league for goals-against average (1.05) after helping post six shutouts in league play.
- Otterbein has played Ohio Northern in the last four championship matches, with each school winning twice over the recent era of dominance. Head Coach Brandon Koons has won this tournament seven times.
- The Cardinals have taken seven in a row from the Yellow Jackets by an aggregate scoring margin of 32-4
