MATCH PREVIEW:

Otterbein stays at home to begin this week, hosting John Carroll and looking to prolong a current 11-match winning streak. The Cards are fresh off a 19-25, 27-25, 25-23, 25-23 victory over BW this past Saturday in the Rike Center.

Otterbein earned a straight-set victory last year over JCU up in University Heights, prevailing by scores of 25-17, 25-15, 25-22 behind 11 kills from Tate Eppard. She was filling in that night for OAC Player of the Year Morgan Lowenkamp, who was under the weather and didn't make the trip.

The Cardinals have earned the last two OAC Player of the Week awards, with senior Hadley Sterett getting selected last week before classmate Andrea Miller grabbed the honor on Monday. She posted a pair of double-doubles with 38 assists/11 digs at Marietta and then 45 assists/17 digs against Baldwin Wallace.

John Carroll has won two matches in a row with 3-0 decision against Geneva and Capital. Sarah Calabrese and Cassi Calamunci both have 212 kills so far this year to pace the Blue Streak attack, good enough to rank top-five in the league.

Libero Caitlin Cianciolo anchors the back line with 5.12 digs per set, ranking third in the conference, while JCU employs a two-setter approach up front. The youthful Blue Streaks, featuring just two seniors on the roster, have already doubled their win total after a 6-26 record last fall.
