MATCH PREVIEW:

Otterbein and Muskingum get set for a key morning showdown, with the result having big implications atop the OAC standings. The Cardinals remain a full game ahead of the field with three to play, but will take on both second-place teams throughout the next few days.

Otterbein remained perfect in league play Tuesday night with a quick 25-8, 25-20, 25-16 victory at Wilmington. Setter Andrea Miller, nearing 4,000 career assists, remains top-10 nationally in the category while leading hitter Hadley Sterett is 14th across the across in kills per set (4.25).

The Muskies have shown great improvement under now third-year head coach Hallie Donathan, who led the squad to a 20-6 record last fall and now has another 20-win season already under her belt. Muskingum's only OAC loss was a 3-0 defeat against ONU, but the Muskies have since bounced back with victories over Mount Union (3-0), Baldwin Wallace (3-2) and Capital (3-1).

Brook Fatheree ranks second behind Sterett in the OAC with 3.85 kills per set, while setter Erin Dickson is third with an average of 10.56 helpers per frame. Dickson, the reigning OAC Player of the Week, also has 21 service aces this year.

Otterbein escaped in a five-set thriller last season in New Concord, prevailing by scores of 26-28, 25-22, 25-20, 26-28, 15-8. Former Cardinal Morgan Lowenkamp had 20 kills while Miller, Sterett and Ashlyn Leon all recorded double-doubles.

“These five ladies have acquired so many experiences throughout their last four years in college and have certainly helped bring our program back to the forefront. The group has different types of players who have taken on different roles at different times, so I am certainly proud of their ability to remain together and win a lot of volleyball matches. Watching them achieve high potential on the court and seeing their faces during celebration is rewarding, but I am even more excited about who they have become as young adults. I am confident each of them will maintain their special work ethic throughout life and find their own individual success in whatever they choose to do. Best of luck and thank you!!”
