MATCH PREVIEW:

Otterbein opens Rivalry Weekend with Capital in the regular-season finale, while also celebrating one of the top defensive specialists to come through the Cardinal program.

Veteran libero Ashlyn Leon, the team's only senior, will be recognized pregame for her contributions since arrival in 2016. She recently went over 2,000 career digs in the thrilling five-set win at Ohio Northern, becoming just the third player in school history to reach 2K. Leon sits 27 shy of cracking into the top-10 in conference history.

Otterbein sits one game back of Ohio Northern and Muskingum as seeding for next week's postseason tournament is still very much to be determined. The Cards will likely at least host a first-round match early next week regardless.

The Cards emerged 26-24, 22-25, 25-12, 22-25, 15-13 at ONU on Tuesday night, marking the seventh contest with a nationally-ranked opponent this season. Dasha Bruyako had a career outing with 22 digs and 17 kills. Charlie Craycraft (69 assists) and Tate Eppard (10 blocks) both flirted with single-game school records. Bruyako will be the upcoming OAC Scholar-Athlete of the Month for November. Look for her feature story come Sunday morning.

Capital has improved after going 0-26 a year ago, opening the fall with a 4-3 record and most recently topping Wilmington to secure an OAC win. Miranda Jordan ranks third in the league for service aces per set.

Otterbein has won 15 of the past 16 matchups in this series, including six in a row. The Cards won 25-23, 25-13, 25-22 last year in Bexley.
