MATCH PREVIEW:

Otterbein finally gets back onto its home floor after starting this unique spring season with a trio of road matchups.

A new-look Cardinal lineup has been on display this spring, but positive results have remained with the team unbeaten so far. Marietta provided a big test on Tuesday night, taking a 2-0 match lead before Otterbein stormed back to win.

Former All-OAC standouts Tate Eppard and Emily Shuk are inactive due to offseason injuries, so other pieces have taken advantage of opportunities and elevated their game.

Julia Vermilion, doing a bit of everything around the court, is a reigning OAC Player of the Week while freshman Morgan Hartman has exploded out of the gate to begin her career. She and Vermilion both have a team-high 68 kills right now.

All of the firepower centers around setter Carlie Craycraft, who ranked second nationally in assists as a freshman and nearly had a triple-double with 50-15-7 at Marietta.

BW swept Capital on opening night before dropping both to Ohio Northern this week. All-OAC setter Kathleen Egan runs the show, with her top weapons being Cecilia Stebel and All-OAC right side Taylor Brown. The Jackets finished 23-6 back in 2019 and made the tournament semifinals.

Otterbein has won 9 of the past 11 matchups in this series, including the last three all by scores of 3-1.
