MATCH PREVIEW:

Otterbein and Mount St. Joseph will complete the tri-match with this late afternoon contest, after both facing off against Heidelberg earlier in the day.

The Cardinals are back in the AVCA national rankings after opening the season in the poll, but falling out after losses to Wittenberg and Calvin.

Morgan Hartman ranks top-25 nationally herself with just over four kills per set, while Amber Greeley is a 2x (and reigning) OAC Offensive Player of the Week. She is hitting .332 so far this fall.

MSJ has played its fair share of quality opponents this season, holding wins over Muskingum (3-2), Denison (3-1) and Wittenberg (3-2). The Lions also have losses to Ohio Northern, Thomas More, Calvin and Wittenberg.

Emily Abshire is contributing 3.72 kills per set while Brooke Aselage (3.22) helps form a nice 1-2 punch. Sam Buschur and her 10.18 assists per frame is good enough to rank top 20 in the nation.

Otterbein has won the past eight matches in this series, although they have played just twice in the past six years.

* Above team records as of the beginning of the day.
